ABOUT US

DFCon is the premier international, interdisciplinary diabetic foot conference in North America. In its 18th year, the course is designed for the wide spectrum of generalists and specialists who diagnose and manage the diabetic foot. Didactic talks, panel discussions, Q&A sessions, specialty symposia and workshops will delve into diagnostic and interventional strategies for diabetic foot ulcers and amputation prevention. Featuring a world-renowned international faculty, DFCon offers the opportunity to review state-of-the-art concepts and techniques.

VENUE

Faculty Disclosure Statement

It is the intent of the Texas Heart Institute to ensure that its educational mission and its continuing medical education activities in particular, not be influenced by the special interests of individuals associated with its program. Having an affiliation with, or an interest in, any corporate organization does not prevent a speaker from making a presentation at an educational event, but the speaker's relationship must be revealed in advance to the audience. When discussing therapeutic options, the presenter should use generic names. If it is necessary to use a trade name, then those of several companies should be used. Further, should the presentation include discussion of any unlabeled and investigational use of a commercial product, the presenter is required to disclose this to the audience. In accordance with the guidelines of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, everyone in a position to control content (faculty, planners, reviewers, and others who control content including their spouse/partner) has disclosed to Texas Heart Institute their relevant financial relationships with commercial interests. The Institute defines "relevant financial relationships" as financial relationships of the individual (including those of the individual's spouse or partner) in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a potential conflict of interest.
